

Is proud to present...

Jennie Mortimer

& the release of her latest
CD entitled... "Reflection"

"Already an International success!"

Australian based Jennie Mortimer graduated with a honorary diploma in music theatre and voice from the "Trinity College" in London, England. She has studied all facets of voice production, ranging from classical through to contemporary styles. She completed a full time dance course at "The Dance Factory" in Melbourne, Australia.

Jennie has worked extensively as a singer/actor in Australia and has taught students in professional productions of "Cats", "Joseph and the amazing Technicolor dreamcoat", "My fair lady", "Guys and Dolls" and "Aida", with the "State Orchestra of Victoria". Jennie has toured extensively throughout the country with these productions and many other cabaret type shows.

Jennie has excellent harmonic skills and has worked as a session singer for various television commercials, as well as a backup singer for various artists. She has supported International acts such as: Boney M, Ronnie Corbett, Village People, Warren Mitchell, to name a few. Jennie has performed in local television productions and films such as " Neighbours", "Phar lap" and has worked along side Jackie Chan in "Mr. Nice Guy".

Her incredible career continues to flourish as she establishes her name in her home country and abroad.
Stay tuned for more on this incredible lady.
